

My wife Jody and I live in Scripps Ranch and have been part of Canyon Springs church for the past decade. We have three kids, Annalee (22), Tyler (20), and Lauren (17) who have all been part of the Canyon Springs Youth Group as both students and student leaders. I have volunteered for Club 45 and loved traveling to Haiti with the church back in 2018.

I am the morning news anchor for NBC 7 here in San Diego and my wife Jody is president of the San Diego based non-profit "Love Does", which is currently doing work around the globe.

As a long-time supporter of the Christian non-profit "Young Life" which introduces unchurched kids to Jesus, I love the message from its founder who said, "It's a sin to bore kids with the gospel."

I look forward to playing a small, but important role, in helping to find a lead pastor who will keep the gospel under the vibrant light it deserves at Canyon Springs.
